DAY IN OLYMPIA 2005

February 17, 2005

Theory & Reality: How Communities are Making Change

Welcome!

The Family Policy Council, together with the Community Networks Coalition, will sponsor two Days in Olympia in 2005. The first Day in Olympia is February 17. Each program includes one half-day educational session on important topics. Afternoons are available for meetings with key partners in Olympia. Networks are encouraged to participate to the greatest degree feasible. Please ensure the network is represented at each session.

The second Day in Olympia will be held March 17 and will be at our traditional location of Ramada Governors' House Hotel. Details to follow.

Hotel for February 17

Best Western Tumwater Motor Inn
5188 Capital Blvd
Tumwater, WA

Reservations: 800-848-4992

The Family Policy Council will pay for one night's hotel on Wednesday, February 16 for persons who live and work 50 or more miles from Tumwater. All others must commute. Please make your own hotel reservations as soon as possible. Ask for a room in the Family Policy Council block.

The Family Policy Council cannot cover expenses such as mileage or airfare; however, a few travel scholarships are available to assist Networks that cannot participate without assistance. Please contact Krista at goldskl@dshs.wa.gov.

Meeting Place—NEW! Please Read

Temple Beth Hatfiloh
8th & Washington Streets
Olympia, WA

We will meet in the TBH social hall (lower level of the building). Please park on the street (metered parking) and use the side door off of Washington Street. The synagogue observes certain dietary rules, so please do not bring into the building any food that contains any form of meat, including shellfish, or that mixes any form of dairy product with any form of meat product. Catering provided by the Family Policy Council will meet the synagogue's standards.

Best Western Tumwater Motor Inn

5188 Capital Blvd

Tumwater, WA

Reservations: 800-848-4992

Take I-5 to Exit 102, Trosper Road (this is the exit to Costco)

If you are heading South on I-5, you will take a left at the end of the exit ramp and cross the highway.

If you are heading North on I-5, you will take a right at the end of the exit ramp.

Take Trosper about one block to the intersection with Capital Blvd.

Turn right into the hotel.

The Hotel is situated next to Plaza Jalisco Restaurant. If you get to the Kentucky Fried Chicken, you've gone too far.

Temple Beth Hatfiloh

802 Washington Street SE

Olympia, WA

FROM I-5

Take I-5 to Exit 105, City Center, State Capitol, Port of Olympia.

NOTE: Exit 105 splits into City Center and Port of Olympia. Follow the exit to the City Center/Capitol.

This exit will bring you up to the intersection of 14th and Jefferson.

Go right onto Jefferson.

At Washington, go right. The Temple is the large 2-story brick building. Use the door on the Washington Street side of the building marked "Beit Sefer."

FROM HOTEL

When leaving the hotel parking lot, turn right onto Capital.

Go past the brewery.

Go past the capitol building.

At 8th Street, turn right.

The Temple is at 8th & Washington. Use the door on the Washington Street side of the building marked "Beit Sefer."

Please note:

Temple Beth Hatfiloh is a Jewish house of worship where certain dietary laws are observed.

Please do not bring into the building any food products that contain meat or shellfish in any form (including additives), or any products that mix milk and meat. Fish is okay, as long as the fish has both scales and fins (so, tuna is okay, but calamari is not). All catering provided by the Family Policy Council will meet the building requirements.
